COUNTY BOARD

Undecided Between Banquet
and Entertainment For St.
Patrick's Day.

Monday night at Hibernian Hall the County Board of the A. O. H. held its regular quarterly session, all the divisions being represented. A Board of Directors was selected to have charge of all the affairs of the order and to hold regular monthly meetings. This board will be composed of Thomas Quinn, Mike Tynan, Col. J. Ford, Joe Cooney, John Hennessy, William Connelly and John Mulloy.

The manner of celebrating St. Patrick's day was discussed at some length, but no definite action was taken, the delegates being unable to decide between a banquet and an entertainment. There seems to be a growing sentiment in favor of a banquet, as there is no certainty of being able to secure any of the big eateries for the night of March 17, and the other halls available would be neither suitable nor large enough.

Delegates were invited to express their views on the advisability of securing a club house and permanent home for the order. The suggestion met with much favor and will soon be submitted to the divisions. Once the start is made it should not be long till the Hibernians have a home that will be a credit to the order and our city. This proposition may have an effect on the consolidation problem, which has been left entirely to the divisions. The time for holding the next meeting was left to the Board of Directors.

THREE NIGHTS' BAZAR.

The people of St. Joseph's congregation are perfecting arrangement for a big bazar, which will open November 15 and continue three nights. It will be given in the school hall adjoining the church on Washington street. The hall will be tastefully decorated and well known ladies of the East End will have charge of a number of booths.

SOON AT HOME.

Mrs. Charles Gries, who underwent an operation last week at St. Anthony's Hospital, is reported making splendid progress toward recovery, and in a short time she will be able to be moved to her home, 618 Thirteenth street. Mrs. Gries has a large number of friends and relatives who will feel much relieved when they learn of her improved condition.

OYSTER SUPPER.

The ladies of St. Anthony's church, Twenty-third and Market, will entertain their friends and the public with a big supper and oyster festival in St. Anthony's Hall on Wednesday, November 23. This should prove an event of the season in the West End, and as the proceeds are for the benefit of the church there will doubtless be a large sale of tickets. Leading men of the congregation will assist the ladies.

HAPPY EVENT.

Francis Gathof, of 1616 West Madison street, was the recipient of a happy surprise from his young friends last Sunday evening. The little fellow recently underwent an operation, and the youngsters took advantage of the occasion to celebrate both his recovery and eleventh birthday. They came in large numbers and took entire control of the house, but before their departure were themselves surprised by the hospitable reception and luncheon received at the hands of Mr. and Mrs. Gathof.

BIRTHDAY SURPRISE.

William Quila, a popular young man of Portland, was tendered an agreeable surprise party last Friday night a week ago, the occasion being his twenty-first birthday. Music and dancing were the features of the evening, after which refreshments were served. The party was captured by Mesdames Robertson, Carr and Coleman. Among those present were Misses M. Baine, Katie Robertson, Mary Robertson, Katie Carr, Margaret Scully, Lottie Gambrell, Leone Arthur, Angela Henley, Emma Ramp, Mary Mack; Messrs Maurice Quill, Thomas Shercliff, William Fisher, Harry Reiter, George Craide, Sam Shang, Martin Robertson, Charles Smith, William Quill.

BETTER RAILWAY SERVICE.

It has just been announced by the management of the Southern railway that a coach will be operated through Atlanta and St. Louis during the month of November, leaving Atlanta and also St. Louis on Tuesdays and Thursdays of each week, these being coach excursion dates. This coach will pass Louisville north-bound Wednesdays and Fridays at 9 o'clock a. m., arriving at St. Louis at 4:56 p. m. South-bound the through coach will leave St. Louis at 11 o'clock

OWENSBORO.

Sarto Council Inaugurates a Big Contest For New Members.

Sarto Council, V. M. I., of Owensboro, at its last week's business meeting decided to have another big initiation and exemplification of the three degrees the first of next year. In order to secure a large number of candidates in addition to those now awaiting admission the entire council has been divided into two companies, to be known as the Japs and Russians, with Fred Arnold and August Graf as the respective Captains. Both sides will use every effort to win the battle, which will involve nearly every Catholic young man in Owensboro. The contest will close with a banquet to the winning side after the initiation in January.

Sarto Council has started its fall work by having more and better social meetings. Last Wednesday night there was a joint meeting of the V. M. I. and Ladies' Auxiliary at Dawson's Hall, with a pleasing programme of musical and literary exercises and happy talks by members and visitors. The evening was brought to a close by a dance that all enjoyed.

BIG EUCHE

Will Be Given Wednesday
Evening by Division 4,
A. O. H.

The euche to be given by Division 4 of the Ancient Order of Hibernians next Wednesday evening at the A. O. H. Hall, gives every indication of being a success socially and financially, as the committee are receiving good returns from the tickets. On account of the great many sick cases and several deaths the treasury of Division 4 has had a pretty severe drain upon it, and the members are working with a vim to make this euche a big success financially.

Thomas Lynch, Frank McDonogh, Tim Downey, Joseph T. Hanrahan and Dennis J. Reardon comprise the committee in charge and they are endeavoring to secure a banner list of prizes. Several of the auxiliary members have donated pieces of fancy sewing for prizes, which will be well striving for. The opening game will be called at 8:30 o'clock sharp.

POPULAR BROTHERS.

Charles and Tom Burton, who conduct a cafe and restaurant at 310 Pearl street, New Albany, are establishing a successful business for themselves, and have a great many friends in this city who always pay them a call when on that side of the river.

HOPKINS' THEATER.

At the Hopkins next week will be one of the best vaudeville bills of the season, according to the management's expectations and announcement. "A Daughter of Bacchus," a comedy sketch, is to be the headliner, and Filson and Errol will be the team presenting it. Two European acts will be witnessed, the Athos family, ball manipulators and acrobats, and Les Olopes, the latter presenting a "musical equilibristic act," which is a phrase strange enough to cause the benighted playgoer to query: "What is it?"

MACAULEY'S.

The all-star cast of "The Two Orphans," which created a sensation at the New Amsterdam Theater, New York, last spring, will be seen at Macauley's Theater Friday and Saturday evenings, November 11 and 12, and matinee Saturday. Included in the cast are Grace George, Sarah Truax, Clara Morris, James O'Neill and Louis James. The great scenic equipment utilized at the New Amsterdam Theater will be used here.

BUCKINGHAM.

Kathry Roe Palmer will be seen at the Buckingham Theater next week with the Rose Hill English Folly Company. She is a delightful little dancer, and known on the stage as "everybody's favorite." She possesses enough of charm and fascination to always win pronounced popularity wherever she appears. The balance of the company are equally good and present a show of surprising merit.

MASONIC.

Local theater goers have a pleasant recollection of Charley Grapevine and his musical comedy, "The Awakening of Mr. Pipp," which was presented at the Masonic Theater last season. The announcement that this attraction will come to the Masonic next week will therefore be welcomed by many of the patrons of this theater.
